OFFICE ON DEADERICK STREET. RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Newspaper proprietors generally, and especially of this fity, under the usages and regulations heretofore prevaling are called upon to perform more labor without remuneration, than any other class of community. The gratuitous publication of charity and religious advertisement, and communications, tributes of respect, oblituaries, &c., &c., which can only be inserted at a heavy cost to the proprietor, improves upon them a burden so opporous, that they feel called in can only be inserted at a heavy cost to the proprietor, imposes upon them a burden so onorous, that they feel called upon, in self-defence, to check the abuse, by making such publications a charge, to some extent at least, upon the parties more mmediately interested. In this they are but following the example of the press in other cities, impelled by a sense of its intrinsic propriety, and imperative duty to themselves. The subscribers have, therefore, united togethor the publication of these as well as every sort of regular business advertising.
